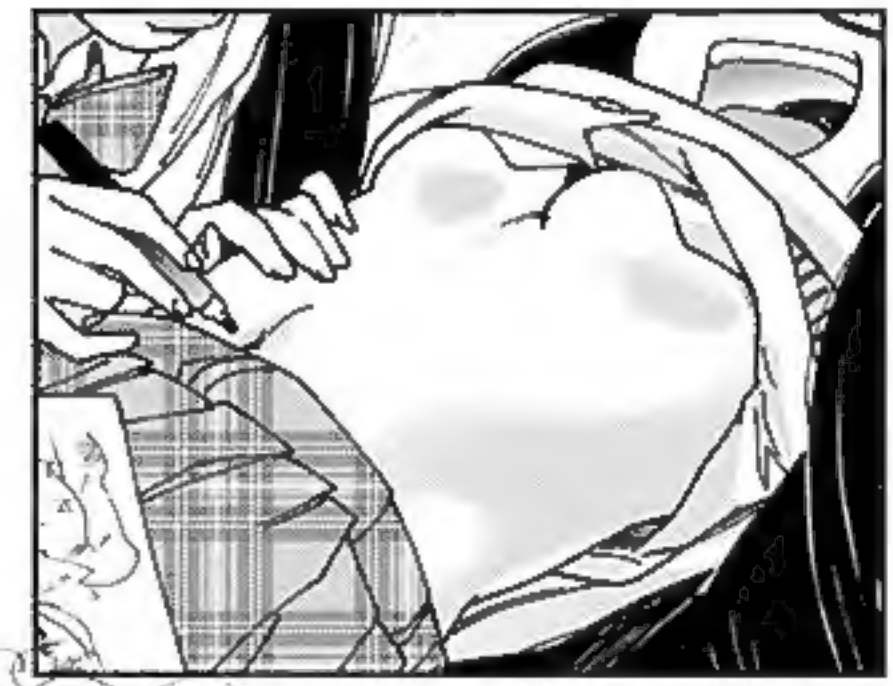
The greeting that the club members use in the original is "Otsukaresama-mmoth", "Otsukaresama" meaning something like "much appreciated".
So yes, it's supposed to be bad.



This guy...! Just because we've done it once!

I have no other choice but to close the country!

Far from it, I won't even put on clothes!

Hey, you! Will you go back to your country, already?

That was the beginning of Japan's isolation!

shock

WHAT?!
